

CAPITOL HILL PRESENTATION OF BONSAI PEOPLE – THE VISION OF MUHAMMAD YUNUS

Thursday April 18, 2013 – 5:30pm
Capitol Visitor’s Center, Orientation Theater – South

HOSTED BY HONORABLE CONGRESSWOMAN BARBARA LEE
Chair of the New Task Force on Poverty and Opportunity

On April 17th, Muhammad Yunus will receive the Congressional Gold Medal. In order to give you a behind the scenes look into Yunus’ extraordinary work, filmmaker Holly Mosher will be presenting short video pieces from her film Bonsai People and share insights into how both his microcredit and social businesses are lifting millions out of poverty in Bangladesh. She will expand on how he uses innovative technologies in healthcare, energy, communications and more, so that the lives of the poor can be improved. Through his inspiration, we want to create a dialogue of how his work could be replicated in the US.

Bonsai People The Vision of Muhammad Yunus

*“Poor people are bonsai people, there is nothing wrong with their seed
- society never allowed them the space to grow.”
-Muhammad Yunus*

“Rather than just reading about Yunus’ wonderful work, you can see it for yourself.” - Richard Branson
